

Rep. Brownson Blasts Demos in Mich. Speech

ALLEGED EASTSIDE SLAYER HELD

Hoosier Solon Charges Demos With Trickery

DETROIT — Admitting that both political parties "have a good many apologies to make to the American Negro," Congressman Charles B. Brownson, (R.) of Indianapolis, predicted here that Negroes who have been fooled too long by Democratic double talk and legislative trickery "will turn to the Republicans in Congress for real action on civil rights."

Brownson was chosen by the Republican National Committee to present the GOP case on civil rights in a debate with Sen. Paul Douglas (D. Ill.) before the NAACP in Detroit last Sunday. The 38-year-old Indianapolis Congressman is a small businessman and veteran of both European and Pacific theaters in World War II. He quoted General Dwight D. Eisenhower's record on civil rights in the armed forces, and the General's Sept. 26 Wheeling, West Virginia, speech, in support of his contention that Negroes and other minority groups will have better chances for fair treatment under a Republican administration. Brownson led the debate in the affirmative, the noted Illinois Senator following with the Democratic claim, after which the meeting was turned into an open forum.

BROWNSON CITED an article by Walter White, Negro journalist and NAACP leader, in the October 7 issue of Look Magazine, as an "informed verdict against the Democratic record on FEPC."

"Over the years the Republicans, as shown by voting records in Congress, have supported these various Civil Rights bills as they came up—anti-poll tax, anti-lynching law, anti-segregation, FEPC etc., but have lost because of opposition that was primarily Democratic, mainly Southern Democratic," Brownson said. "As a result, the civil rights bills have failed. Nor has President Truman enforced the terms of various executive orders and policy declarations on civil rights."

"During all this time the Democrats have been in power they have talked civil rights but have failed to vote for them," Brownson said.

HE TERMED THE Democrat administration record on civil rights "a betrayal which has never been redeemed or explained."

State NAACP in Fort Wayne, Oct. 17-19

FORT WAYNE — The Indiana State Conference of NAACP Branches will hold its annual meeting here Oct. 17-19. Bernard Brown, Assistant Field Secretary of the national staff, and Herbert Wright, National Youth Secretary, are among the scheduled speakers for the conference.

The local branch, host to the conference, is headed by Mrs. Lucinda Briggs and attracted national attention at the 1952 national convention, on raising its membership from 100 to 700 members in two years.

Willard B. Ransom, Indianapolis attorney, business leader and president of the Indiana NAACP organization, predicts the largest attendance at the conference of any ever held.

On account of the pending hearing of the South Carolina-Kansas School Cases before the U. S. Supreme Court Thurgood Marshall, chief counsel of the national NAACP staff, will not attend the conference.

ISSUES TO BE discussed by the conference include implementing the Indiana Anti-Segregated School Law, with particular emphasis on teacher integration; the establishment of a stronger FEPC by the state legislature; a stronger civil rights law; the present political campaign, with analysis of candidates' records, and problems of membership organization and strategy of NAACP branches.

The Youth Council and College Chapters will hold a state meeting here at the same time, under leadership of Miss Willie Effie Thomas, Evansville. Mr. Wright will serve as advisor.

All members and friends of the NAACP are invited to attend the conference. All branches are urged to send delegates.

OFFICERS OF THE Indiana

State Conference are Mr. Ransom, president; Melvin Baird, South Bend, first vice-president; Hollis King, Kokomo, second vice-president; Mrs. Edna Johnson, Indianapolis, secretary; Earl Drye, Elkhart, treasurer, and Fred D. Coker, South Bend, director of branches.

Members of the board of directors include Mrs. Jessie Jacobs, Indianapolis; Leslie White, New Albany; Mrs. Briggs; Mrs. Edna J. Morris, Gary, and Glover Gary, East Chicago. Miss Thomas is State Youth Advisor and Miss Dorothy Carter, Evansville, president of Youth Councils and College Chapters.

Eisenhower Backers Stage Big Ga. Meet

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Atlanta last week heard speakers tell them the Republican party is the only hope of Negro voters who are interested in a two party system in the South, according to Val J. Washington, assistant to the chairman of the Republican National Committee.

The occasion was a mass meeting of voters for Eisenhower held at Big Bethel AME Church. Speakers blasted the Democrats on civil rights and Sen. John Sparkman.

Robert Tuttle, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, hailed the GOP as "the only party in Georgia that Negroes can participate in."

Other speakers included: The Rev. C. N. Ellis, J. Shaw Att. Cassandra Maxwell Birnie, Atty. Barnaby Hill, David W. Brown, John C. Calhoun and C. A. Scott.

Scott, editor of the Atlanta Daily World and former president of the Citizens Democratic club, said he abandoned the Democratic party this year because it had failed to deliver on civil rights legislation.

John Wesley Dobbs, vice chairman of the Republican State committee, presided over the meeting.

Ez Launches Comeback with Reynolds Kayo

CINCINNATI — Ezzard Charles, former world's heavyweight champion, will fight Caesar Brion on Oct. 24 in Madison Square Garden as the second bout in his "comeback trail," it was announced here Wednesday.

The announcement by Manager Jake Mintz followed Charles' impressive 2nd-round knockout of Bernie Reynolds of Cliffside, N.J. The fast kayo launched a comeback campaign for the local "Ebony Panther," who dropped the heavyweight title to Jersey Joe Walcott in July, 1951.

Previous to the bout, Reynolds had won 52 of 64 professional fights and scored 31 knockouts. He was no trouble at all for Ez, who bloodied his nose in the 2nd, then sent him reeling with a series of punches to the head, setting him up for a right to the jaw that ended it.

Stress was laid on the fact that it took Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano three rounds—one more than Charles—to kayo Reynolds.

PREPARE NAACP STATE MEET: The Fort Wayne chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will be host to the annual NAACP state conference, which will be held Oct. 17-19 at Pilgrim Baptist Church, Gay and Eliza streets, in the Northern Indiana city. Members of the program committee are pictured at a recent meeting in the Howell Hotel, mapping plans for the conclave. Left to right are, seated, Mrs. Archie Patterson, Mrs. William L. Briggs, Mrs. Bernetta Young and Rev. Clyde Adams; standing, Mrs. Jackie Patterson, Weston Minor, Mrs. Thurman Howell, Mrs. Fannie Morris and Mrs. Percival Moore.

FAC Annual Drive Starts Friday, Oct. 17

The 15th annual membership drive of the Federation of Associated Clubs, Inc. will get underway formally with a meeting in the club home in N. Capitol avenue Friday evening, Oct. 17. D. W. D. Hector and Bud Garnett are co-chairmen of the drive. Mrs. Mary Lindsey is the secretary.

Leaders in the membership drive report that civic-minded citizens throughout the metropolitan area of Indianapolis have pledged their support in making the drive an unparalleled success. The drive has been planned as one of the most intensive ever staged by the FAC.

Two rival groups or teams of FAC members will participate in the drive, "The Grays" and "The Blues." Eroy A. Harper is Colonel of "The Grays" and Miss Beane Dobbins is Colonel of "The Blues."

Members of the "Grays" group include Dr. Ezra Alexander, Mrs. Ethel Ryan, Mrs. Thelma Herrington, Mrs. Nora Hector, Mrs. Hassie Pearson, Dr. George Watkins, Mrs. Susie Billingsley, Edward Patterson, John Powers, George E. Ransaw, Mrs. Willa Roundtree, George Richardson, Mrs. Frances Howard, Mrs. Margaret Woodson, Mrs. Ruby Wadell, Mrs. Lillian Goins, Mrs. Lula Hodges, Mrs. Helen Valentine, Mrs. Frank R. Beckwith, Cronie Banks, Mrs. Odessa Skaggs, Matthew Hector and Luke Jones.

Members of the "Blues" group include William Lester Craig, Mrs. Anna Kennerley, Mrs. Clo

WASHINGTON (AP)—The eyes of America will center on the U. S. Supreme Court Oct. 14 when that august body hears arguments on one of the most controversial cases to come before it in recent years.

At that time the court will hear appeals from two school suits which challenge the constitutionality of segregation in the nation's public schools. The NAACP contends that segregation in public schools violates the 14th Amendment to the U. S. Constitution.

The trial is the result of briefs filed with the Supreme court by the NAACP asking for a reversal of lower court decisions which upheld Jim Crow schools in South Carolina and Kansas.

THE SCHOOL SUITS originated in Clarendon County, S.

C., in 1950 and Topeka, Kan., in 1951. The Clarendon County case was the first one in the 20th Century to challenge the constitutionality of segregation in education, and probably is the more famous of the two.

The Topeka case is important however, in that unlike the other case it took place in a northern state.

What decision the Supreme Court hands down is important not only to Negroes but to whites too. In many southern states, political leaders have threatened to abolish the public school system in the event the court declares segregation in the schools unconstitutional. Gov. James Byrnes is perhaps the most outspoken spokesman of this group.

Realtors' Meet to Survey FHA, VA Loans for Vets

By VERNON JARRETT
CLEVELAND (AP)—Are Negro veterans sleeping fox-hole style while some $200,000,000 is available in direct home loans at the Veterans Administration?

What about another $200,000,000 available through the Federal National Mortgage Association? This is no pie in the sky. The money was put there by an act of Congress—the Defense Housing Act of 1951. It may be gone before enough Negroes awaken to it, but there's still time to act.

Meanwhile, Negroes generally have yet to get a clear picture of those choice "near-but-yet-so-far" 4% and 4½% private loans insured by the VA and Federal Housing Administration respectively.

week by T. B. King, top director of VA's Home Loan Guaranty Program, and Hugh C. Askey, assistant commissioner of FHA field operations. Both will address the 1952 convention of the National Association of Real Estate Brokers, Inc., meeting here Oct. 15-17.

Here's the general pitch on the VA: This Federal body not only will insure 4% loans made through private lending agencies, it also will make direct loans to veterans who can get certificates of eligibility. Direct loan applications must show that private lenders have refused to make the 4% loan.

While the Defense Housing Act of 1951 extended the VA's power to make direct loans, applications are NOT restricted to critical defense areas. Last spring Congress refueled this VA fund with an additional $125,000,000, which should bring the total available cost to roughly $200,000,000. Applicants must file before July, 1952.

During the recent National Urban League convention, this reporter was given a similar VA fund estimate by Neal J. Hardy, assistant administrator, Housing & Home Finance Agency, which directs all Federal housing assistance.

THE 1951 ACT further authorized the Federal National Mortgage Association to make advance commitments to buy from original lenders up to $2,000,000 of government-insured home mortgages on homes in defense areas. While applicants are NOT restricted to veterans, their locale

Young Man Held As Slayer of "Drinking Pal"

The unbridled blood-lust of a 24-year-old Sioux Indian reared by Negro parents and a familiar figure along Indiana avenue most of his life, helped touch off a chain reaction to the crime wave gripping Indianapolis and responsible for five murder victims within the past two weeks.

The tracking down and arrest of the young Indian, Richard Benbow, 1831 Carrollton avenue, was one of the highlights in the stepped-up law enforcement drive to combat the increase in homicide, spectacular robberies, hold-ups and burglaries.

RICHARD BENBOW

For other persons had been the victims of homicidal manias when police learned of the savage, ruthless killing of James Thomason, middle-aged self-employed painter, 1541 Carrollton avenue, on Wednesday last week.

Thomason's badly battered body, with throat slashed, was found in a trash-littered lot in the 1900 block of Cornell. The face was grotesquely disfigured, swollen and blood-smear by many bruises. The chest was bruised and crushed, indicating he had been trampled upon violently.

BENBOW WAS arrested within 24 hours by two detectives who spent their off-time working carefully and determinedly on solving the case, though they had little with which to start their search for the killer.

Mayor Alex M. Clark promptly gave high praise to the two efficient members of the homicide division, Det. Sgts. Forrest McKeighan and Frank Lotz, who solved the brutal crime.

"It was a fine piece of police work," the Mayor said. "It was the kind of murder that with unimaginative or slipshod detective work could have joined the file of unsolved crimes."

The detectives undertook a slow, careful door-to-door canvass of the neighborhood that paid off in information revealing the suspect.

The officers learned of a quarrel between Benbow and Thomason. Benbow, they recalled, had been arrested and served time for the slaying of Ora Riggel, 53, in Military Park heard before a special three-judge federal court, the right of the states to require separation of the races in public school education was upheld, with Judge J. Walter Waring dissenting. The court, however, instructed the school system to take steps to bring equalization of Negro and white schools in the district, and to report back within six months on progress made in that direction.

S. C. School Case

IN THE TOPEKA case, the court found that "segregation with the sanction of the law has a tendency to retard the educational and mental development of Negro children and to deprive them of some of the benefits they would receive in a racially integrated school system."

The NAACP in briefs filed on Sept. 23, contends that race as a factor in the admission of students is "a constitutional irrelevance," and urges the court to ban by judicial decree state laws providing for racial distinctions in education.

The NAACP challenges the applicability of former Supreme Court decisions such as Plessy vs. Ferguson and Gong Lum vs. Rice which appear to uphold segregation.

The NAACP points out that the new trend of Supreme court decisions has been towards recognition of the unconstitutionality of statutory segregation. As an example, the NAACP cites three decisions handed down in the Texas and Oklahoma universities cases.

In support of its legal briefs, the NAACP filed an appendix including a social science statement on the effects of segregation and the consequences of desegregation. THE STATEMENT was drafted and signed by 32 of the nation's noted social scientists, all of whom have worked in field race relations and some of whom appeared as witnesses in the present case.

The decision on the Supreme Court hands down will have far-reaching results. Arthur B. Spingarn, president of the NAACP, said:

"It will have far-reaching effect and will most certainly take on international importance," Spingarn said. "Since the United States proposes to be the leader in the fight for freedom, peace and equality for all peoples, the nations of Asia, Africa and South America will scrutinize the high court's ruling with great care and will most likely accept it as an example of what they themselves could expect from America."

Associated with Thurgood Marshall, NAACP special counsel, in presenting the cases to the U. S. Supreme Court are Robert L. Carter, of the NAACP national legal staff; and Spottswood W. Robinson III, Richmond, Va.; Harold R. Boulware of Columbia, S. C.; John Scott and Charles Scott of Topeka, Kans.;

And David Pinsky, Elwood Chisholm, Jack Greenberg, Leonard W. Schroeter and Constantine Baker Motley of the national office; George E. C. Hayes, George M. Johnson, James M. Nabrit, and Frank D. Reeves of Washington; William R. Ming, Jr., of Chicago; Jack B. Weinstein of N. Y.; and William T. Coleman, Jr., of Philadelphia.

A General Hospital, ambulance surgeon upon arrival at the home pronounced him dead, an hour after he stumbled after getting out of bed to prepare for work.

Local Girl Elected Supreme Basileus Of National Sorority

Social Scene . . .

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

Indianapolis was not only the site for the seventh annual boule of the national Tau Gamma Delta sorority—it also took top honors when one of its outstanding sorority members took the top position in the group.

She is Mrs. Bertha Smith, who was elected supreme basileus during the four-day boule here with Gamma chapter as hostess in the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA. The theme "Togetherness—The Keynote of Success" was elaborated upon during the sessions and especially in the message by the outgoing supreme basileus, Mrs. Mary Hall, of Detroit.

Highlights of the social side of the boule were a welcoming luncheon at the Walker Coffee Pot, formal dance at the Walker Casino, wiener roast at the home of Mrs. Naomi Phillips, banquet at Flanner House, cocktail party with Sorors Elythe Alsop and Marjorie Keyes as hostesses in Mrs. Alsop's home, and worship at Witherspoon United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Paul A. Batties was principal speaker for the installation banquet, also emphasizing the theme of "togetherness" in her talk.

Other officers elected were Sorors Celilus Morgan, Detroit, anti-basileus; Thelma Ballard, Sacramento, second anti-basileus; Drucilla Lee, New York City, supreme grammateus; Charlye Diggs, Detroit, anti-grammateus; Lois Porter Brown, Indianapolis, supreme epistoleus; Joanelle Williams, Detroit, financial secretary; Arlene Rammage, Detroit, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Alsop, assistant.

Also elected were Sorors Barbara Johnson, Sacramento, editor-in-chief; Richarden Reeves, Detroit, historian; Rosalyn Coleman, Indianapolis, keeper-of-pins; Mary Mosby, Indianapolis, national organizer; Eliza Hamilton, New York City, eastern regional director; Rosie Harrison, Detroit, central regional director; Frances P. Smith, Los Angeles, western regional director; and Emma Fitts, Detroit, chaplain.

New members elected to the board of directors are Sorors Lucy Larry, Detroit; Martha Foster, Indianapolis; Elizabeth Shepherd, New York; and Corine Dean, Detroit. Retained were Sorors Olga Groner, Pasadena, and Ollie Brown, Detroit.

Beta chapter of Detroit will be hostess to the 1953 boule August 27-30.

Right on the heels of the boule was the first program to be held in the auditorium of the new FAC home—an "Enchanting Hour" presented by the educational committee of the FAC, of which Mrs. Ann Kennerly is chairman. The portions of the program I heard were quite good, and it looked as if everyone was enjoying himself.

The Me-De-Phar Guild held its first meeting of the season last Friday evening in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sirdastion Meriwether. Members present were Mesdames O. B. Paige, president;

J. W. Anderson, R. B. McArthur, Guy L. Grant, S. L. Auter, I. V. Turner, R. D. Clinthorne, F. E. Chowning, B. H. Pritchett, C. B. Cox, J. C. Brown, J. L. Simms, E. D. Alexander, F. M. King, and George Dixon and Miss Ollie Middleton.

Mrs. George L. Hayes will be hostess to the opening meeting of the Book Lovers club Sunday evening in her home. Mrs. John Norrel is president.

From Miss Euras Biggins comes a card, postmarked New York City, informing me that she is on a six-week vacation there attending the fashion designing class at the YWCA Trade School in Harlem. She says there are about 25 in the class—three of them men!

JATP CROWD FILLS MURAT

The Murat theater was packed Sunday night for both shows of the Jazz at the Philharmonic for no reason other than that the thousands of patrons knew they would hear a top-flight program of solid music.

They were not disappointed—for the jazz enthusiast there is nothing in this world to equal the star-studded JATP performances. This year's show was right in there with the best of them, presenting a galaxy of stars such as Ella Fitzgerald the incomparable, Oscar Peterson the imitable, Flip Phillips, Willie Smith, Lester Young, Roy Eldridge, Barney Kessel, Hank Jones, Ray Brown, Buddy Rich, Gene Krupa and Charlie Shavers.

There's no point in attempting evaluation of the performers; each is tops.

It is a shame, though, that the engineers hadn't been told to give Hank Jones more mike when he was playing with the Krupa trio. The poor fellow was knocking himself out, but against the drum and sax without more mike, he was lost.

Most impressive thing about the concert was the marvelous audience participation. When the performers were bopping it up right, the audience yelled its appreciation most vociferously, but at the snap of a finger the listeners would soften to nothing for the Oscar Peterson Trio when they waxed sentimental or for La Fitzgerald in her more quiet moments. The "symphony at the philharmonic" crowd might take a lesson.

No, there's nothing else in this world like the JATP. Perhaps it's just as well, though—our hearts can stand just so much exhilaration. (RCH)

76-YEAR-OLD WOMAN SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Rosa B. Jackson, 2130 North Capitol avenue, was feted at a surprise party on her 76th birthday last week by her granddaughter, Mrs. Rosa Belle Blake. She received gifts from her two great-grandsons, Paul and George Blake, Mary Clemons, and Betty Bogan.

Painful cramps of "Monthly Periods" stopped or amazingly relieved

in 3 out of 4 cases in doctors' own tests!

• Women and girls who suffer from those functionally-caused cramps, backaches and headaches of menstruation—who feel upset and irritable on certain "particular days"—may often be suffering quite unnecessarily!

Such is the conclusion from tests by doctors in which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound gave complete or striking relief from such distress in 3 out of 4 of the cases tested!

Yes! Medical evidence shows Lydia Pinkham's thoroughly modern action. It exerts a remarkably calming effect on the uterus—without the use of pain-killing drugs! The effectiveness of Lydia Pinkham's needs no proof to the millions of women and girls whom it has benefited. But how about you? Do you know what it may do for you?

Take Lydia Pinkham's through the month. See if you don't get the same relief from the pains and weakness of "those days!" See if you don't feel better before and during your period!

Get either Lydia Pinkham's Compound or new, improved Tablets, with added iron! If you're troubled with "hot flashes" and other functional distress of "change of life" you'll find Lydia Pinkham's wonderful for that, too!

Do CRAMPS give you that monthly look?

Why let tell-tale misery, "nerves" show in your eyes? Does your mirror show an older-looking, worn-out, nervous face during your "bad days"? Why let men see that you are suffering from monthly cramps? Try a little Cardui each day as thousands of women do. Let it help build strength and resistance so you have less and less misery each month. Some go through periods without feeling any discomforts at all. Also helps relax jittery nerves—sleep better. Look, feel, act younger, more normal all month. Ask for Cardui.

When the recipe calls for baking powder, I've discovered my best bet is always CALUMET. For CALUMET Baking Powder is double acting and double DEPENDABLE. What I mean by that is that CALUMET lifts and lightens baked treats twice. Yes, CALUMET goes to work once in the mixing bowl . . . and once again in the oven's heat. That way, anything I bake—or you bake either—for that matter—is protected against baking failure all the way. CALUMET, you see, insures baking success . . . whether you're baking cakes, waffles, biscuits, muffins or some other homebaked delight. So next time you bake, be sure to use CALUMET, America's Quality Baking Powder. It's double-dependable! You can count on CALUMET!

I CAN'T STOP SINGING the praises of Black and White Bleaching Cream for lighter, smoother, softer skin. This famous cream is now 3 times stronger than before. Its "Special Ingredient" works directly on the color in your skin—and the direct bleaching action goes right into the layer in your skin where skin color is regulated. Yes, Black and White Bleaching Cream's amazing action—a result of regular dressing table use as directed—will help you have shades lighter, smoother, softer skin beginning in just 7 days. Modern science knows no faster method of lightening skin. Thrilling results, take my advice and try a jar of Black and White triple strength Bleaching Cream today!

DON'T GIVE UP! If you're forever changing from one kind of coffee to another, trying to find the makings of a better cup of coffee, there's still hope. Maybe it's not the coffee. Perhaps you should "cream" your coffee with Carnation Evaporated Milk. Since Carnation is concentrated to the consistency of thick, rich cream—and even whips—it gives coffee a smoother, mellower flavor and a richer, more tempting color. More folks prefer Carnation in their coffee than any other brand of evaporated milk. Chances are you will, too. Next time you have coffee, fill your cream pitcher with extra rich Carnation, and see if I'm not right.

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. MCGUIRE

The dedication and memorial services were largely attended at the Rescue Mission last Sunday afternoon in spite of the heavy rain. Speakers were B. J. Jackson and Mrs. A. Webb. Musical numbers were rendered by the Ever Ready chorus, the New Bethel octet, and the Sheldon Street Temple group.

The services marked the eight years the mission has been organized by Rev. Grover C. Mills and his late wife. Mrs. Cecelia Waldon, 2459 Columbia avenue, served on the committee in charge.

Last Sunday morning several hundreds of persons enjoyed the annual consecration services at New Bethel Baptist Church, of which Dr. J. O. Clark is pastor. Dr. Clark resumed his religious education classes at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA on Wednesday of this week. The classes are open to everyone.

Mrs. Dorothy Terry, 2225 Sheldon street, will be hostess to the Wild Rose club next Thursday. An interesting program has been arranged.

October 16 is also the date that Mrs. Lula Hardiman, 121 East 17th street, will open her doors for Group No. 1 of New Bethel Baptist Church, of which the late Mrs. K. Harris, Dr. L. B. Among other members present were Mesdames Eldora Pritchett, Maude Lee, Viola Mills, Ethel Merker, Lucinda Towns, Annie Mae Horton, Ada Douglass, Cora Wilson, Elizabeth Tandy, Evelyn Woodson, and Betty Marks. James Woodson and Elmer Dulin.

Please note: When sending in articles, please write the FULL names of individuals, since there are so many people whose last names are the same, otherwise news will be omitted. All social news and other news will be appreciated.

We are proud to note that Dr. I. O. Clark has accepted the co-chairmanship of the Community Fund drive in the eastside along with Mrs. Evelyn Blackmore, 623 Bellefontaine street, president of the School No. 26 PTA.

All ushers of the city mourn the passing of William Bailey, for many years president of the Antich Baptist Church usher board. Mr. Bailey was the father of the late Edward C. Bailey, circulation manager of The Recorder for many years.

Dropping in to see Mrs. Johnnie White, 2344 Sheldon street, I was surprised to learn that she had been very ill since last week. Mrs. White is an active member of Eastern Star Baptist Church and a widely known club woman.

More than twenty singing groups participated in the program of the fall tea given by the members of the Antich Baptist Church last Sunday. Mrs. Madge Sharpe is president, and Mesdames Beatrice Legg and Gladys Smith were responsible for the program. Rev. F. R. Gregory is host pastor.

Christina Perry, J. S. Stuart Repeat Vows In Church Rites

St. John AME Church was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers last Sunday afternoon for the wedding of Miss Christina Cora Perry, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Perry, and Joseph Stokes Stuart, son of Dr. and Mrs. William Weir Stuart.

Dr. J. P. Q. Wallace, presiding elder of the AME District, presided over the single-ring ceremony before an arch formed by two palms. At each side was a seven-arched candelabrum. Palms and baskets of white mums flanked the altar at each side, and the white communion cloth was around the altar and pulpit.

Rows of white satin ribbon marked the family pews.

Local Church to Celebrate Pastor's Silver Anniversary

REV. C. HENRY BELL

Sunday, October 12, the Mount Paran Baptist Church will observe the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of their pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. C. Henry Bell. At the morning service, all the singing organizations of the church will participate in a Mass Devotional Service under the direction of Mrs. Blossom R. Jones, Roy Lewis and David M. Walker. Groups participating will be the Morning and Evening Senior Chorus, the Celestial and Junior Chorus, the Male, Female and Usher Board Chorus. Rev. John R. Mount Paran has advanced numerically, financially, and spiritually under the leadership of Pastor

MRS. JOSEPHINE BELL

Bell, and he is well known as a leader, teacher, and minister. He is Moderator of the State Baptist Association and Vice President of the National Baptist Convention of America. In all of his twenty-five years at the helm of Mount Paran, he has not missed one observance of the Lord's Supper on the first Sunday.

Mrs. Josephine Bell, his most energetic wife, is always by his side and is invaluable in the home life of the church.

Other members appearing on the afternoon program will include Mesdames Werdna Allen, Mary Carr, Elnora Lewis, and Revs. William McReynolds, J. F. Johnson, and P. D. Jacobs.

Mrs. Mary Gamble is general chairman; John R. Fitts, co-chairman, and Miss Betty Dirroh, secretary.

The public is invited.

HAPPENINGS AT JONES TABERNACLE

The great task of the Church as the salt of the earth and the light of the world is to keep the salt from losing its savor and the light from becoming so dim that it will not be able to save the world nor guide it in a godly direction.

Man has been spending so much of his energy in breathless anticipation of new and more wonderful miracles, that little time is left for the solution of the more vital problem—the problem of Man himself. For every material and physical miracle of man, the Church must furnish a spiritual antidote that will reach the soul and conscience of man, and place him under moral and spiritual concepts and responsibilities; that will enable him to establish some form of group relationship; local, national, and international, which will enable men to live as brothers in our Father's world, and not as enemies.

THIS IS THE ROAD TO PEACE.
I. Albert Moore, Pastor.

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."

Teen Talk

By THE SNOOPER

Last Wednesday night brought a swell time on the east side. Edna B. Smith had a real fine party, and the place really jumped. Coming from the party, I noticed Mary Cud and James Brown were together again. I knew they would make up.

George, I see you and Edna are going together again real nicely, but that's no more than everybody expected, since you were such nice friends in high school. Old love never dies, does it? In fact, it doesn't even fade away. Right, Edna?

Speaking of smooth as ever teams, Eugene Gilbert and Mabeline Smith are back at it again. Keep the good work up, kids. James "Tiny" Adams, have you decided to quit letting Eddie Lou Evans make a fool out of you? True enough, as Dinah Washington says, "Everybody is somebody's fool." I think you had better listen to the Ink Spots when they say "A fool grows wise." Oh! Oh! Oh! The Barbara Walker — Annette Bell — Jimmy Denny triangle! Wait just a minute — just where is Pat Horner? Barbara likes Jimmy, and Jimmy likes Annette. Well it's pretty complicated, and I still can't place Pat in this game. She must be left out.

"Lawdy, Miss Clawdy" is what Bailey Robertson says every time he sees Pat Horner. Cool it, Pat, you don't have to worry about Phyllis Smith now. She is out, so no more of her dogging.

Who was the "fine young thing" that Henry D. Cain had at the game with him? Move on in, Mr. Cain, looks as if you're on the cool train again.

Here's the latest on the bestest triangle—Vernaughn Hardy, according to your own statement, Harriett Blackburn is the girl for you, yet we hear that you're taking Barbara "Boo" Davenport to the show every Sunday. Is this just a "friendly gesture"?

Carolyn Montgomery, there comes a request for you to give some of the fellows a chance. It's from "Willie and the boys," and they say that you cut them cold. Is that any way to treat your admirers?

We see that DeWitt Brittain is playing the field. Which is it, Mary Helen Johnson or Ethel Boyd? Ethel seems really to be wrapped up in him. Is this true, Ethel?

Playtime at the girl's "Y" last Monday was very nice, especially the skating and swimming. True enough, the dancing was a little rough, but it won't be next time — I hope!

Little Reggie Valentine rates very high among the girls. Don't let it go to your head, Reggie, but play it cool. John Gray has turned into a regular Valentino. With so many girls surrounding him, the poor boy doesn't know which way to turn.

Edith Morrow should let her older sister, Billie, tell her some of the basic facts of life. For your own good, Edith, don't be so flip; wait a few years. Later, kid, Betty Johnson and Sam Smith are the ideal couple of the month. Anita Grey should consult them about Julius Alexander.

Gene Manning and Pauline Woods are still going together, but I don't think it will last much longer. Ula Channel raises Herman Cheers as top man on her list. Poor Jesse James (not the outlaw) is completely off the list.

TAKES RETAKES
(NEWS OF PLACES AND PEOPLE)

ROBERT C. WEAVER, New York, director of the program, John Hay Whitney Foundation (Opportunity Fellowship Program) announced this week that applications for 1953 Fellowships are now available with awards ranging from $1,000 to $3,000 cash each.

The awards are made to American citizens who because of artificial barriers such as race, cultural background or region of residence, have not had opportunity "to achieve their full potential."

Mr. Weaver observed, "Opportunity Fellowships are enabling young Americans to continue graduate study, prepare for careers through European travel and study, or undertake creative work in this country. We have been most gratified by the tendency of our Fellows to prepare for and enter into new fields."

"ONE OF THESE IS FOREIGN SERVICE. Among the 1952-53 Negro Fellows, Mercer Cook, Jr., is now enroute to Paris where he will continue his graduate work at the Institute d'Etudes Politiques, preparatory to entering the State Department."

Mr. Weaver notes other young Negro persons who are pursuing studies qualifying them for foreign service. Candidates for the awards are required to have completed four years of college training and show evidence of exceptional promise. Preference is given to applicants under age 35, and both academic and creative artists of outstanding ability are eligible.

The current Opportunity Fellows' group includes 31 Negro persons studying and working in the United States, the Caribbean and in Europe. Noting the several fields of study and areas of work Mr. Weaver said, "These and other Opportunity Fellows are making more real the promise of American democracy, while they develop their talents more fully and quickly."

We venture that the program of the John Hay Whitney Foundation may secure eventually to the sponsors a "thousand-fold of unparalleled social values." Wherein we contemplate objectives of inspiring and preparing young Americans, of all races and creeds, for service and work in foreign fields—in promotion of human sympathies, understanding and practical fellowship in tomorrow's small world.

JACOB S. POTOFSKY, member of the International Development Advisory Board (Point 4 Program), prominent labor leader and president of the Sidney Hillman Foundation, told a college audience in Virginia recently that discrimination acts like a poison to weaken our national strength and to undermine the very foundation of our existence.

Mr. Potofsky said, "I realize that discrimination can be completely routed out only when it is expelled from our hearts; that is the most effective, the only permanent solution. But those who oppose federal laws on the basis that we cannot legislate prejudice out of people's hearts are dodging the issue."

Again he observed that legislation is part and parcel of the educational job which is required to rid our country of discrimination. Further he stated that race hatred is not a normal expression of normal individuals, rather it is the product of mis-education and misinformation.

Attacking the theory of gradualism in solving racial problems, Mr. Potofsky emphasized that the battle against discrimination cannot be a passive one.

He concluded, "There can be no neutral ground to prejudice. We are, however, making progress even though that progress often appears slow and sometimes discouraging. Nevertheless, we are marching forward."

Mr. Potofsky, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America (CWA) and as member of President Truman's Point Four Program (board) has had opportunity for observations over wide areas at home and abroad. In this connection there are camps in which his opinions may be condemned and others in which these will be condoned.

We propose that legislation (in keeping with the spirit and letter of the fundamental law) is part and parcel of the educational work in the ridding our country of discrimination and prejudice, or the same as bigotry and intolerance spawned in outmoded traditions.

Further we propose that bigotry and intolerance undermine the spirit and letter of the basic law of the land and nullify the spirit and tenets of Christian culture, to array neighbor against neighbor, among all the descendants of the Founding Fathers of the Republic.

HORACE SUDDUTH, Cincinnati realtor, financier and president of the National Negro Business League, in a communique to Negro business people over the country cites the program of the NNBL to be stressed at the 52nd annual convention in Washington, D.C., Oct. 29-31.

The progressive educational program of the NNBL as envisioned by Mr. Sudduth represents "the best way to prepare ourselves on a national scale for the job of measuring up to American standards of business accomplishment." He notes that the educational program cannot be projected without the support of Negro business people, local business leagues and trade groups, in turn meaning more memberships in the NNBL.

We submit that Negro business people of the land would do well in lending an ear and eye to the progressive program of the NNBL. In this connection the NNBL president, Mr. Sudduth's views of a progressive business program have been printed in a booklet, "The Doorway to Economic Freedom," which is sponsored by the NNBL.

Regarding "economic freedom," Mr. Sudduth is president of the Industrial Building and Loan Company, with authorized capital of $1,000,000, the institution recently qualified for a federal charter. Mr. Sudduth has been in the real estate business in Cincinnati more than four decades and is the owner of a modern hotel erected within the last decade at a reported cost of $500,000.

HYDE PARK SQUARE

Dear Sir:

Your friends, Edward Zebulon Brown and Ling Foo during their most recent meeting and chat in the Antique Store discussed political corruption, while sipping an old Oriental wine.

On the issue of corrupting public officials, "MR. FOLIN" said, "The enterprising neighbor of the doctor at Oshkosh, Kokomo or Paducah who fixes six parking tickets is a party in spirit to the oil magnate in a 'Coffee Pot Dome' deal. The corruption of public trust involves 'two people' or 'too many millions.'"

"EASY BREEZE" concluded, "The easy virtue of high placed persons in public service during the 1920's most likely reflected the highest point venality in government has reached in the time of people now living. However politicians of high or low estate may not, cannot compare on the same score with 'flares of legerdemain' in the private sphere of services and commodities."

Very truly yours,

Episcopalians' Meet Surveys Marriages Outside of Church

BOSTON (ANP)—Episcopalians last week were cautioned against agreeing to a Roman Catholic law requiring children of a "mixed marriage" to be brought up as Roman Catholics. A mixed marriage is defined by the Roman Church laws as one contracted between a member of the church and a person who is not a Roman Catholic.

The warning issued by the House of Bishops called on Episcopalians as a matter of duty to refuse to enter into any such pre-marital agreement.

The attention of all Episcopalians was directed to a resolution adopted by the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies at the last general convention three years ago.

THIS RESOLUTION was a "against contracting marriages with Roman Catholics under the conditions imposed by modern Roman canon law; especially as these conditions involve a promise to have their children brought up in a religious system which they cannot accept."

The "mixed marriage" resolution was previously presented to the House of Deputies, which placed it on the calendar of consideration during the last four days of the 57th general convention.

The amendment, which was not passed, read:

"It shall be the duty of a member of another religious body not affiliated with this church, to refrain from entering into any pre-marital agreement as a condition for such marriage that the children of such intended marriage shall be brought up in any religious body other than this church."

FAC, A CHALLENGE TO CIVIC LEADERS

The disquieting shadow of legal action which might threaten the tenure of its club home by the Federation of Associated Clubs, Inc., must come as a distinct shock to any or all citizens committed to constructive activity, or otherwise possessing any degree of civic pride.

In this connection the membership of the organization represents a cross-section of the Negro population of the community. People in all walks of life are members of the organization, bridging the lines of race or creed. And the civic and charitable activities of the organization have been a credit to its members, justifying the continued existence of the FAC.

Assuming that the leader, officials and members of the FAC have pursued a practical course in an ambitious program of affording for themselves and the people of the community an appreciable center of social and civic activities—we note again that the people of the community will respond to the seeming embarrassing situation in which the FAC is portrayed, as a charge or fact.

We note again the constructive worth and practical work of the organization have justified its existence, without implying that the issue jeopardizes use of, or possession of the club home. However, if it develops into such a situation, it poses a challenge to all citizens of civic pride, and all persons styled leaders on the civic front.

WORTHWHILE POLITICAL ACTIONS

Two non-partisan political actions of the greatest importance to the community were announced recently.

One was the formation of a group which will work across the lines of political parties in promoting the nomination and election of Negro persons to public office.

This step, in our opinion, is long overdue. Along with the rest of the public, we are fed up with the spectacle of Negroes scrambling for nominations, and fighting each other in the elections, to the point where all are defeated.

United action of the kind proposed would not be necessary, of course, if the political parties were giving a fair break to their Negro followers. But it has been widely charged that the local Democrats and Republicans have made an unwritten agreement to freeze the Negro out of public office. At least it can't be denied that after many years of representation on the City Council, Negroes have been excluded from that body in the past two elections. And the same goes for the School Board. It is true that the board is controlled by the Citizens School Committee rather than by the parties directly, but the result is the same as far as we are concerned.

With this state of affairs prevailing in Indianapolis, the banding together of Negro Republicans, Democrats and independents is simply a matter of self-defense. In other words, we must be Negroes before we are Republicans and Democrats.

The second positive step to be commended is the establishment of a legislative committee by a number of ministers and laymen. This committee will study proposed new legislation and measures to strengthen the civil rights laws that are already on the books in Indiana. The group will sponsor a Citizens' Roll Call for a Legislative Congress, to be held at Mt. Paran Baptist Church on Oct. 24. Communities throughout the state are expected to send representatives.

We believe all public-spirited citizens should pitch in and support these two united, non-partisan movements. When political leaders and ministers act unitedly for progress, we predict that worthwhile results will be achieved.

NATIONAL NEGRO BUSINESS LEAGUE

Founded by the late Booker T. Washington the National Negro Business League will hold its 52nd annual convention in the nation's capital, Oct. 29-31. The first meeting was held in Boston, Aug. 23-24, 1900. The great educator expressed the hope that out of this beginning would "grow local business leagues tending to improve the Negro as a business factor in our land."

Mr. Washington served as the first president of the organization holding the office until the time of his death in 1915. Since that time seven outstanding pioneers among Negro business people have served as leaders of the organization. Among these have been J. C. Napier, former Register of the U. S. Treasury and a Tennessee banker; C. C. Spaulding, late president of the $65 million North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company; Dr. J. E. Walker, chairman of the board of the Universal Life Insurance Company; Roscoe Dunjee, nationally known Oklahoma newspaper editor and among others the present president Horace Sudduth, Cincinnati real estate operator, of wide renown.

The present president of the League envisions a program of education on a national scale that will prepare Negro people to measure up to the nation's standards of business accomplishments. Further he feels that every community in which Negro people operate businesses, active business or trade organizations should be maintained and these in turn should be affiliated with the National Negro Business League.

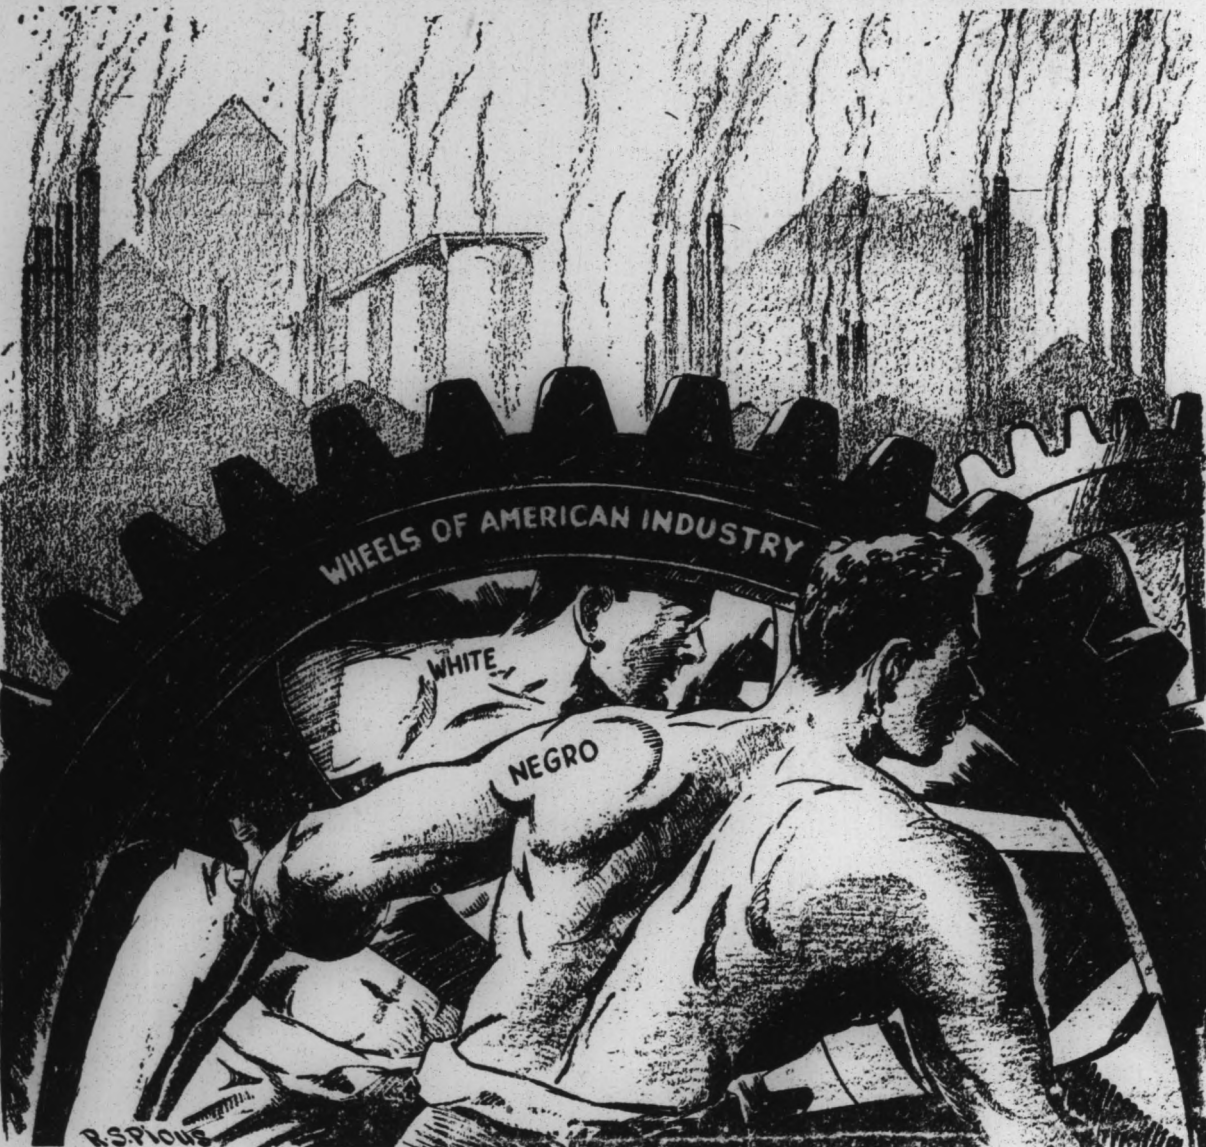

The educational program as projected by the League is constructive and worthy of the support of Negro people, in any or all phases of business endeavor. The program will require greater financial support on the local and state levels by Negro business people, and the goal of raising Negro business to typical standards of the nation's business is a challenge to all the Negro people of our land.

DODGERS GO DOWN

Once again it has happened to our favorite baseball club. It seems almost unbelievable that a team could rise so high, on so many occasions, as the Brooklyn Dodgers—could come so close to the supreme triumph, and could again have the door of glory slammed right in its face!

The hot stove circuit will be buzzing all winter with explanations of what went wrong. At the end of all the talk, however, we Dodger fans will still be on the outside looking in. And yet—would we change places with a Yankee fan?

Not on your tinfoil! We honorary inhabitants of Flatbush are used to hard knocks. They are our natural element, and if you think a little thing like Tuesday can faze us, you're sadly mistaken. Don't forget, we've lost the World Series five times before—three times to the Yankees. Wait till next year—wait till year after next—one of these years the Dodgers are going to win!

WORRY

"Man that is born of woman is of a few days and full of trouble."

Perhaps everybody—children, youths and adults of various ages—cannot help being worriers to some extent.

Many lose control over the emotions and become victims of imaginary sensations. They suffer from hysteria—a mental affliction generally occurring in individuals whose constitutions are neurotic and unstable. Heredity is influential but early surroundings and faulty education also are important factors in hysteria.

There is an old saying that it is not work but worry that kills. It deserves to be kept in mind. Under proper conditions the human brain is capable of withstanding great work strain. But constant and continued subjection to emotional disturbance—particularly such depressive emotions as grief, anxiety and worry—often prove to be too much for even the strongest intellect. The DON'T WORRY societies are to be encouraged.

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, pastor of the famed MARBLE COLLEGIATE Church, 1 West 29th Street, New York 1, N. Y., has done more than any one I know of to help worriers. Every week 115,000 copies of his sermons are printed and sent to people all over the world as well as throughout this country. Well-known slogans are that it is a church WHERE OLD-FASHIONED FRIENDLINESS STILL SURVIVES & WHERE YOU ARE A STRANGER BUT ONCE.

In its immediate membership there are rich and poor, high and low, literate and illiterate, proud and humble. The vast expanse of publishing and distributing his selected sermons is borne by voluntary subscriptions in varying amounts. Any person may get them without charge if he is unable or unwilling to make a contribution to the work. Neither salvation nor worldly assistance is for sale at MARBLE COLLEGIATE CHURCH. Compare and contrast that attitude with that of many so-called workers for Christ whose chief consideration appears to be to wheedle the largest possible financial contribution from glibbie communicants.

In his booklet WHAT'S YOUR TROUBLE? the really consecrated preacher has a two-page chapter called I AM A WORRIER. A partial analysis of that chapter may be of some interest and value.

Dr. Peale contends that worrying is a habit—"a very bad mental habit." He argues that since any habit can be changed the habit of worrying ought to be replaced by a more cheerful outlook by any and all worriers.

His formula for breaking the worrying habit of worrying is to practice the opposite and more constructive habit of faith. Just as the worry habit has been used so long and constantly as to work automatically so by long-continued, earnest effort one can develop the optimistic viewpoint.

By faith as used here he seems in part to mean that one should constantly persuade himself that everything will come out all right in regard to all matters about which he formerly suffered from doubts and fears. He suggests how to make the faith attitude effective:

The first thing to do before getting out of bed each morning is to say out loud three times, "I believe, I believe, I believe." There is no explanation as to the indicated time and place to utter the two words.

The following prayer also is recommended: "I place this day, my life, my loved ones, my work in the Lord's hands. There is no harm in the Lord's hands—only good. Whatever happens, whatever results, if I am in the Lord's hands, it is the Lord's will and it is good."

It is urged that you form the habit of talking positively to all subjects about which heretofore you have expressed yourself negatively. Instead of predicting that this is going to be a bad day strongly affirm your belief that the day will be grand. Never doubt your ability to accomplish an undertaking. Rather believe that with God's aid you will succeed in all worthy endeavors.

Talk things up—not down. Avoid people whose conversation foretells fear, gloom and defeat. Seek those who talk faith, hope and joy. Help all you can to overcome their worrying habit. Familiarize yourself with Bible passages telling about faith and optimism.

WOMEN CAN SAVE AFRICAN PEOPLES FROM DESTRUCTION

Living conditions among Africans are deteriorating. Here is what was said in the Annual Medical Report of 1928 for Kenya as quoted by W. M. MacMillan in his "Africa Emergent."

"Almost every African native is infected with some type of intestinal worm. A large proportion suffer at some time or another from malaria. Over large areas plague and yaws are endemic. Syphilis appears to be becoming increasingly prevalent in certain districts. Pneumonia, broncho-pneumonia, and tuberculosis take a large toll of life."

"THE CIRCUMSTANCES of the people are such that they live under conditions which are admirably suitable for the existence and spread of the casual agents of disease or of their animal hosts. Even when huts and villages are not overcrowded with humans, they are always overcrowded with the causative organisms of disease or the carriers of these organisms, so that escape from infection is for the great majority of people impossible."

That is a fair picture of the general conditions under which most Africans lived 24 years ago. Conditions have deteriorated since then. In the reserves and slums of South Africa, Northern and Southern Rhodesia, East Africa and in Nigeria conditions are much worse. In those areas the African natives have no way of escape; they are doomed to suffer and to die prematurely and they have no way of escape.

If a majority of people in Africa appealed to the peoples of the world for help, the help that Africans need would be forthcoming.

There is a remedy. Do not believe the colonial powers when they say the position is hopeless. It is not hopeless at all.

AFRICAN WOMEN are emerging. In Nigeria women are gaining great power. In my opinion they are more determined that their men-folk to save their race.

African men—particularly a majority of Nigerians—are anxious only to grab more money. They are imitating their European masters, the big monopolists, who have controlled the economic life of West Africa (and of other parts of Africa) for many years.

Nigerian women are organizing and are not going to stand idly by and watch their children die when they know they can be saved. African women visit the missionaries and the welfare centers where fine men and women from Britain, America and elsewhere are showing them how to improve living conditions and how to save their children.

I have met these European women out here. And I have met the African women too.

They are combining and cannot lose this battle if they get help. They need help urgently. Every second counts in this fight for their babies; every second counts in this fight for the lives of the millions of the tiny lives and every second we can buy them the drugs, the food and the living conditions that can save them without doubt.

There are bases established. Some of the British government manned by able men and women. Some by missionaries equally well manned.

All that is needed is money. And more able men and women. The natural resources of Africa are sufficient to pay for all the help Africans need.

THESE NATURAL resources are being used to prepare for war. But by neglecting to use these natural resources to save life we are effectively killing more of our friends, the Africans, than were killed in the last war.

I appeal to American women to organize relief. Organize a Committee of Relief-Friends of Africa and get busy. I will give you the names of responsible bodies over here who will use what you send. But come across and see for yourselves.

A number of British, American and African women are combining in an attempt to relieve and rehabilitate African women and children.

AYRES' MOVE SCORES ANOTHER NEGRO FIRST

The fuss that we usually make when a Negro becomes the "first of his race" to participate in a situation which is normal to other American groups probably seems ludicrous to outside observers and the praise that we heap upon the individuals responsible for the change would lend a little credence to the claim that we are fawning over whites.

While both of these views have a certain amount of validity, to dismiss the jubilation of Negroes over these "firsts" as a mere craving for the approbation of the majority group is an oversimplification.

Those who find it laughable that Negroes can be made happy over so little are forgetting that the racial lines in America have been so tightly drawn for so long that Negroes are apt to rejoice in any overt act that seems to indicate a breach in the wall that separates them from other Americans.

Sometimes the rejoicing is premature when what seems to be a change in policy turns out to be merely a come-on to prevent Negroes from pressing for more. Things like the appointment of a lone Negro to an erstwhile lily-white post while other Negro demands are unheeded and the assigning of a Negro teacher or two to a school with a racial mixture of over fifty per cent Negro while relegating other Negro teachers to strictly segregated schools are acts which may cause premature and unfounded rejoicing.

But a case like the signing of Jackie Robinson by the Brooklyn Dodgers was a well-founded cause of rejoicing because it heralded the entrance into organized baseball of many outstanding Negro stars and permanently removed baseball from the category of white man's sports.

The employment of Negroes in skilled jobs in industry during World War Two was accompanied by a mixture of rejoicing and doubtful shaking of heads because many Negroes remembered what happened after the first global conflict when Negroes were the first hired and last fired. As it turned out in most instances, the larger industrial concerns kept their new-found help and the Negro was allowed larger crumbs from the American economic table.

But the purpose of this piece is to give a one man's evaluation of the hiring by L. S. Ayres of two Negro sales persons. The columnist has been torn between the horns of a dilemma—whether to express his gratitude to a firm for doing what is right and what it should have been doing all the time or to dwell upon the minuteness of this latest contribution to democratic human relations.

The final decision was to do a little of both and to plot a possible course of action of Negro consumers in the Hoosier metropolis.

This column has several times in the past five and a half years pointed out that all of the leading local department stores practiced outrageous discrimination in their employment practices. Ayres, until this recent move, hired Negroes only as porters, maids and elevator operators. Strauss' ed rejoicing.

The final decision was to do a little of both and to plot a possible course of action of Negro consumers in the Hoosier metropolis.

This column has several times in the past five and a half years pointed out that all of the leading local department stores practiced outrageous discrimination in their employment practices. Ayres, until this recent move, hired Negroes only as porters, maids and elevator operators. Strauss' ed rejoicing.

But a case like the signing of Jackie Robinson by the Brooklyn Dodgers was a well-founded cause of rejoicing because it heralded the entrance into organized baseball of many outstanding Negro stars and permanently removed baseball from the category of white man's sports.

The employment of Negroes in skilled jobs in industry during World War Two was accompanied by a mixture of rejoicing and doubtful shaking of heads because many Negroes remembered what happened after the first global conflict when Negroes were the first hired and last fired. As it turned out in most instances, the larger industrial concerns kept their new-found help and the Negro was allowed larger crumbs from the American economic table.

But the purpose of this piece is to give a one man's evaluation of the hiring by L. S. Ayres of two Negro sales persons. The columnist has been torn between the horns of a dilemma—whether to express his gratitude to a firm for doing what is right and what it should have been doing all the time or to dwell upon the minuteness of this latest contribution to democratic human relations.

DODGERS UPHOLD BROOKLYN TRADITIONS

Attucks' Gardner Transfers Trotter Tactics to Gridiron

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

Attucks is still rising! That was the word last week as the Tigers bowed in stubborn defeat by a 14-6 margin to Howe—a school that defeated them 32-0 last year.

While losing the game to the Hornets, the Watfordmen took home the consolation prize for the most thrilling play of the evening—a 50-yard touchdown pass from Fullback JULIAN COMBS to none other than End WILLIAM "DILL" GARDNER. That play was a "dilly," to coin a phrase.

Remaining on the Green-and-Gold schedule are four contests, all to be played within a fortnight. The opponents are Shortridge, on the Blue Devil field at 2 p. m. on Friday, Oct. 17; Sacred Heart, at CYO Field Oct. 22, 8 p. m.; Decatur Central, there Oct. 29, and University high school at Bloomington, Oct. 31.

That is a rather rough prospect, inasmuch as Shortridge at this writing is rated on a par with Cathedral as tops in Indianapolis; Sacred Heart is unbeaten; and Bloomington University, a new one on the Tiger schedule, is a perennial football power, if our dope is correct.

Yet so great has been the improvement of Lon Watford's boys this year that one gentleman connected with Attucks told us he expects to lose only one of these remaining four games. We didn't ask him which one.

THE TIGERS' HOPES to taste the red meat of real victory rather than the soup bones of moral victory received a heavy blow at the very start of the Howe contest. On the 5th play after Gardner's kickoff sailed over the Hornet goal-line, ROBERT "BE-BOP" JONES, Attucks' fancy left-handed passer, was hurt so badly that he had to be carried off the field. His injury, described as a severely sprained ankle, grounded the Tiger aerial attack except for a couple of flashes late in the game.

The loss of Jones also seemed to disrupt the Attucks secondary defense. The Hornets were quick to capitalize on this weakness. They had already racked up two first downs to their own 43. On the play after Jones' injury Robert Pirtle passed to Armano Roach, who was downed at the Tiger 38. The elusive Leroy Thompson kept from the T and went all the way down to the Tiger 16. After two running plays, Thompson passed to Don Rees at the 1-yard line. Leroy himself took it over for the game's first score, with only 5½ minutes gone.

Tom Bruce kicked the point and it was 7-0.

THE REMAINDER of the hal was hard-fought, but without further scoring. Combs did the heavy lifting for Attucks, and Bob Schrier looked good for Howe on wide end sweeps. OTTIS JACKSON contributed a whopping defensive play when he broke through and tossed Thompson for a 9-yard loss.

A novelty occurred at the end of the first quarter, when the sounding of the buzzer caused the Tech Field lights to go out. DICKY MOORE was running around Howe's right end at the time, and in the total darkness there was much conjecture as to where he had gone. Turned out he was tackled—but whether in the light or the dark, we never did find out.

The third quarter opened with an exchange of punts. Gardner showed basketball tactics as he batted down a pass just out of the passer's hand and on another occasion almost intercepted a pitchout. A break came when Howe's Dick Wood recovered a fumble 11 yards from the goal. Thompson ran it over in three plays, and again Bruce kicked the point.

Trailing 14-0, the Watfordmen at last found the formula for ground-gaining. After an exchange of punts, JOHNNY MACK BROWN discovered a hole at Howe's right guard. He went through it three times for healthy gains in a drive that carried to the Howe 20 as the third period ended.

HERE THE HORNET line stiffened. The teams battled back and forth until midway in the final quarter. Attucks took the ball on downs at its own 12, and after Brown had run for gains of 5 and 3, Combs faded back to the goal-line and threw a desperate toss to JAMES CORNETT.

Combs hit Moore for a short gain, and then Brown rambled through the line for 13 yards. Time was running out as Combs faded back and over to the sidelines for another pass. It seemed he was trapped and could not get the ball away, but at the last possible moment he shot it far down the field.

Gardner was waiting on the Howe 2, all alone.

WAIT TILL NEXT YEAR: As the age-old refrain rises over the spires of Flatbush, the eyes of Dodger fans are turning toward Jimmy "Junior" Gilliam, voted the Most Valuable Player in the International League this season. Rumor hath it that Gilliam will move into the Brooklyn lineup at second base next spring, shoving Jackie Robinson over to first. That apparently would eliminate Gil Hodges, who went hitless throughout the World Series. Gilliam had 169 hits, including 41 doubles, and 107 runs batted in for Montreal. Could the Dodgers use a hitter?

Kid Gavilan Goes After Sugar Ray

HAVANA, Cuba—Following his easy title defense against Billy Graham here Saturday, Welterweight Champion Kid Gavilan said he plans to force Sugar Ray Robinson into a fight for the middleweight title.

The Keed had it all his own way in his third victory over Graham, outboxing and outsmarting the New York fighter throughout. He tried his famed bolo punch only twice.

All three officials gave Gavilan the 15-round bout by a wide margin. The victory removed the stigma of their Madison Square Garden fight last year, when Gavilan won on a hotly disputed decision.

Local newspapers were displeased by the Kid's cautious tactics against Graham. "No enthusiasm," said the newspaper Cristol.

The champ, however, explained: "That was my advance strategy and I stuck to it and won. I had dedicated the fight to Cubans and my friends in Argentina and wanted it to be a victory."

"It would have been foolhardy and perhaps very costly to try and knock out such a dangerous and strong boxer as Graham."

Percentage Followed by Dressen-Out the Window

NEW YORK—Brooklyn's tradition of never winning a World Series was upheld Tuesday as the Beloved Bums blew the final game, 4-2.

It looked for a while as if the Dodgers, who held a 3 games to 2 lead coming home to Ebbets Field on Monday, might not be able to choke up sufficiently this time.

But with true Dodger genius, they managed to snatch defeat from the jaws of victory.

Four Yankee errors and several excellent scoring opportunities gave the Flatbush favorites a hard way to go in order to remain loyal to their reputation and eke out a loss. Perhaps no other team could have done it.

But the Dodgers could, and did, and thus the earth still spins upright on its axis. Everything is as it should be—the New York Yankees are World Champions, and the Brooklyn Dodgers are World Champions.

ALL THAT REMAINS now is to parcel out the blame for the bitter defeat. To paraphrase an old saying, there is dishonor enough for all.

While the Yankees are dividing up their fat winner's share of the purse, the second-guessers are dividing up the Dodgers. It is rumored that the nickname of the club may be changed to the Brooklyn Goats.

If so, Goat No. 1 will likely be Manager Charley Dressen, whose erratic career reached the height of blowing the National League pennant last year, and now has been climaxed by blowing the World Series. What more is there for him to blow?

Charley may soon be selling magazines instead of writing them. In handling the pitchers and batting order, he was definitely outfoxed by Casey Stengel, second-guessers believe.

Monday's game was the one to win. And yet Dressen left Billy Loes in to lose it. He should have come in with Joe Black and wrapped up the pennant right then and there.

Again in the finale, after the Yanks began to hit Black in the 4th, the manager should have got him out of there at once. A fast-ball thrower can look great against five left-handed hitting Yanks for a few innings—enough to have saved Monday's game. But the same hurler, with the edge off his stuff, is sooner or later going to throw home-run balls to a couple of those lefties—especially at Ebbets Field, with the wind blowing over the right-field corner.

The set-up fairly screamed for Preacher Roe, or anybody else but a fireballer, in the 4th. Roe came on in the 6th—after the horse was stolen. Carl Erskine arrived in the 7th, and got the Yanks out from then on, but it was definitely too late then.

STENGEL SHOWED how to do it with a tired pitching staff on a again.

THE DISASTROUS outcome wiped out from the public mind the Dodgers' splendid achievement in battling to within 3 runs of the world's championship.

Forgotten for the moment were Black's amazing rookie record and his top-notch hurling even in the Series, including the first half of the final game.

Forgotten was Robinson's homer which sent the Dodgers to a flying start in the 2nd inning of the opening game; the double steal of Pee-wee Reese and Robinson on Oct. 3, which was followed by Yogi Berra's passed ball which let in both runners; the throwing arm of Campanella, which held the Yanks to one stolen base in the Series (by Gil McDougald).

Forgotten was Snider's slugging, Reese's timely batting, the fielding exploits of Billy Cox and Carl Furillo. Nobody follows a losing horse to the barn. The Bums were Bums again.

Carter Seeks to Regain Crown From Salas in Chicago Battle

By LUIS VIRGIL OVERBEA

CHICAGO (ANP)—Cauliflower Alley in Chicago is abuzz with excitement over the impending lightweight championship bout between Champion Lauro Salas of Mexico and Challenger Jimmy Carter of New York.

The big night will be next Wednesday at the Chicago Stadium. Salas has been training at Michigan City, Ind., and Carter at the Midwest Gymnasium here.

This is the rubber match between the two men. Both previous fights were for the title, which Carter held. Both were on the West Coast.

Carter won the first bout by a safe margin although Salas floored him for a 9-count in the 15th and final round. In the return match the champion ran out of steam, and Salas unseated him. This bout was close too, however.

WHEN THESE TWO were first matched, Carter was sharply criticized because he had passed up his top challengers, Luther Rawlings and Virgil Atkins, for Salas who was rated only 7th among feather-weights. Yet it may be recalled that Carter himself won the crown although he was not considered a qualified challenger when he signed for the bout. He was the first man to prove that the then champion, Ike Williams, was through as a top-ranking fighter.

Carter never has been considered a great champion by any means. He always was a willing mixer who put up a good fight. He is a modest young man with a family in New York and a sincere interest in making a good living out of fighting.

Salas likewise has never been

Matson Returns 100

CHICAGO — Ollie Matson, Olympic dash star from the University of San Francisco, returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown as the Chicago Cardinals upset the Chicago Bears 21-10 here Sunday. It was the fifth longest kickoff return in National Football League history.

The rookie Matson also scored another touchdown.

acclaimed as a great fighter. Considered just a pretty good featherweight, Salas gained prominence as an aggressive battler. He seems to love to fight.

Therefore, this will be known as the battle of nonentities who made the grade although the odds were against them.

Her cast of over 200 stars include the Amin Brothers, famed Egyptian acrobats; Willie West and McGinty, hilarious comedy trio also known as "The House Builders"; Martha and Alexander, noted Cuban dancers; Buddy LaLonde, sensational speed and trick skater; Don Watson, "The Flying Saucer," etc.

Barbara Stanwyck, Paul Douglas, Robert Ryan Marilyn Monroe Star in "Clash By Night"

Jerry Ward and Norman Krasna, for their third RKO Radio film, co-star Barbara Stanwyck, Paul Douglas, Robert Ryan and Marilyn Monroe in "Clash By Night," a drama of a lonely woman and the two men in her life. One is her husband; the other, his best friend, to whom she is deeply attracted.

The locale is a picturesque fishing town, where life on the surface is simple and placid, but where passionate currents flow dangerously. Briefly the story concerns Barbara Stanwyck, who returns to her home after ten years of futile attempts to find personal happiness. A tired and disillusioned woman, she marries Paul Douglas, a fishing-boat skipper, for security. Within a comparatively short time she discovers that she cannot resist the physical appeal of cynical and sophisticated Robert Ryan, a theatre projectivist, who is her husband's best friend.

The emotional conflicts in which this trio are embroiled will be understood and shared by a universal audience. Because of the honesty and sincerity with which the situation is treated in "Clash By Night," it has been hailed by the critics as one of the more notable screen dramas of recent months.

Chest X-rays Offered Free On Westside, Oct. 6-8

Chest X-rays will be offered free on the near Northwest side when the Marion County Tuberculosis Association brings the portable X-ray unit to three different locations in the community next week.

The unit will be at the Senate Avenue YMCA, 450 N. Senate, Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 7 and 8. Hours Tuesday will be 2 to 6 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. and Wednesday's schedule will be 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 to 6 p.m. Thursday X-rays will be available at Attucks high school, 1140 N. West, from 2 to 6 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday's location will be the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, 653 N. West, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.

Everyone 15 years of age or older is eligible for chest X-rays, according to William R. Miner, health educator for the TB Association. Children under 15 are X-ray only on orders from a doctor or school nurse. Chest X-rays only take a minute, since no disrobing is necessary. "Every adult should have a chest X-ray once a year," Mr. Miner pointed out, "to protect himself and his family from tuberculosis and other chest disease."

Red Feather Campaign Workers Will Make Night Appeal, Oct. 13

A highlight of the 1952 Red Feather campaign will occur on Monday, October 13th. It is called "Community Lights Night," according to Mrs. J. M. Zoercher, chairman of the residential division of the campaign.

Each person in Indianapolis is asked to turn on his porch light

—no later than 6:30 p.m.—prior to the arrival of a volunteer solicitor, who will come for pledges to the campaign. For residents of apartment buildings, the Chest has asked them to attach a white handkerchief to their door.

In announcing "Community Lights Night," Mrs. Zoercher said, "this is an opportunity for housewives to participate in the campaign and also for all others who are not solicited at their place of employment."

Doorbells will be ringing all over Indianapolis on Community Lights Night by over 2,000 volunteer ladies—many of whom will be accompanied by a Boy Scout. One of the 50 Red Feather services who will receive support from this drive. These volunteer solicitors will ask for signed pledges payable over a 12 month period rather than picking up cash to carry.

Assisting Mrs. Zoercher in development of the plans for Community Lights Night are her two Associate chairmen, Mrs. Frank Crowder and Mrs. Morris Jacobs.

The goal for the drive has been set at $1,643,856. These funds will go to support the work of the 50 Red Feather services in 1953.

See for yourself why LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

How to prove to yourself Luckies are made better—to taste cleaner, fresher, smoother

Strip the paper from a Lucky by carefully tearing down the seam from end to end. Be sure it's from a newly opened pack, and that you don't dig into the tobacco. Then gently lift out the tobacco cylinder.

Here's why Luckies taste cleaner: You can see that Luckies hold together without crumbling—without loose ends to get in your mouth and spoil the taste. Lucky Strike remains a perfect cylinder of clean tobacco—round, firm and fully packed.

Here's why Luckies taste fresher: Note how free Luckies are from air spaces—"hot spots" that give you a hot, harsh taste. What's more, every pack of Luckies is extra-tightly sealed to keep in Luckies' fresher taste.

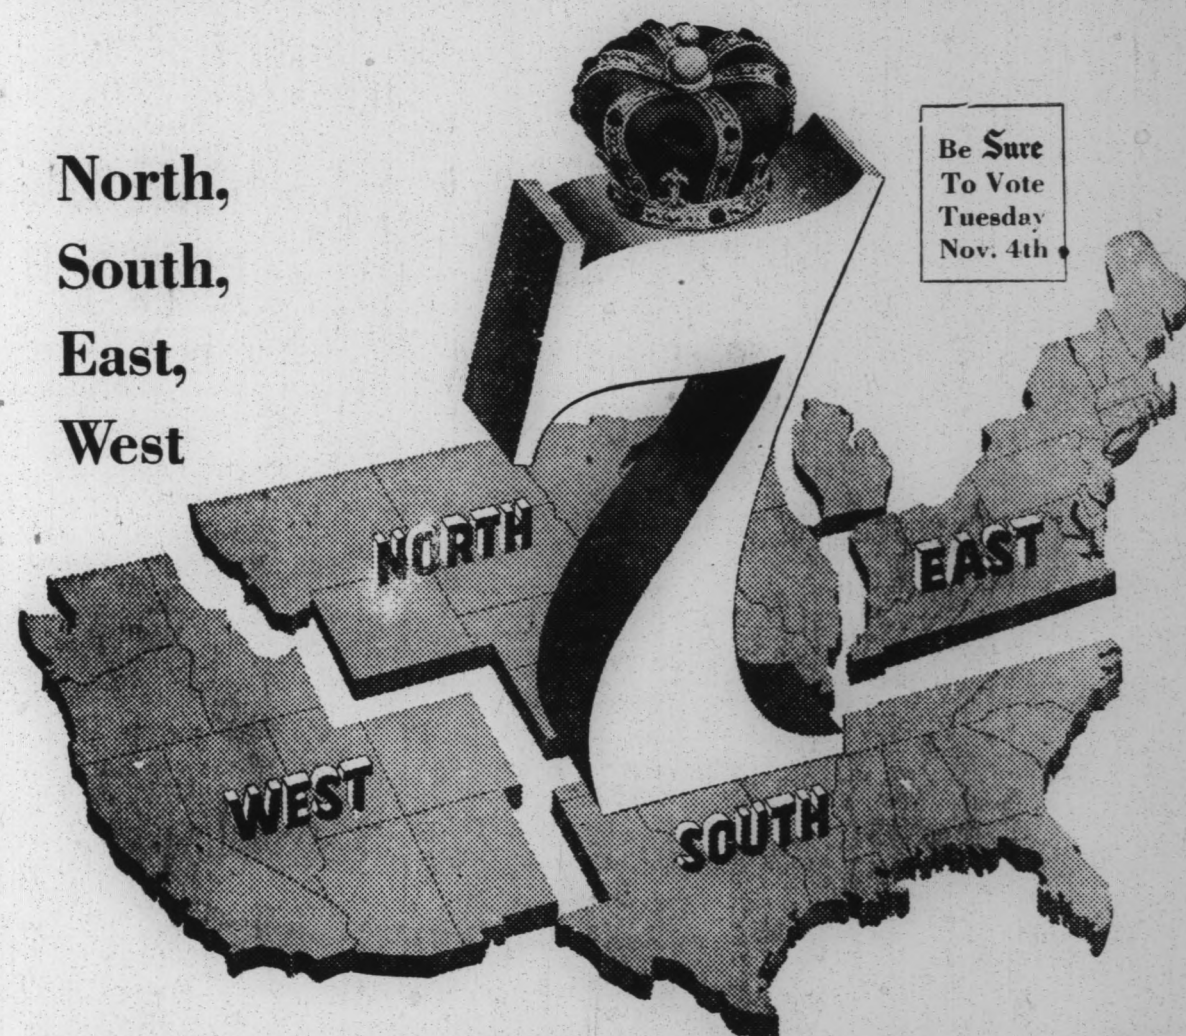

Here's why Luckies taste smoother: L.S./M.F.T., Lucky Strike means fine tobacco—long strands of fine, light, naturally mild tobacco, in a cigarette that draws freely and smokes smoothly. So, for a cigarette that tastes cleaner, fresher, smoother—make your next carton Lucky Strike!
